

Proclamation

Vietnam Veteran's Day March 29, 2014

WHEREAS, America is a symbol of freedom and has achieved its stature in the world because of the selfless service of our brave veterans. The fearless members of our country's armed forces have given up the comforts of home, the company of loved ones and, for some, even their own lives so that we could live in our land of liberty; and

WHEREAS, our Vietnam veterans fought for our freedom, kept America safe and have dedicated their lives to this nation. We are forever thankful for their unwavering strength and courage while fighting in the Vietnam War. We join together in expressing our gratitude, remembering their service and saying "Welcome Home"; and

WHEREAS, we honor the immeasurable sacrifices and contributions our Vietnam War veterans have made to protect the life, liberty and happiness of every American; and

WHEREAS, all veterans deserve our deepest respect. May we always remember the heroism and courage of those who have served and those who continue to serve; and

WHEREAS, it is a community's obligation to commemorate and honor the service and sacrifice of its citizen soldiers. The Town of Prescott Valley, Arizona is proud to honor and acknowledge the service and sacrifice of all the men and women who served in the United States Military in Vietnam.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harvey C. Skoog, Mayor of Prescott Valley, do hereby proclaim March 29, 2014 as:

in Prescott Valley, Arizona and urge all citizens to observe the day with appropriate observations, activities, service projects and programs that honor Vietnam veterans, their families and friends.

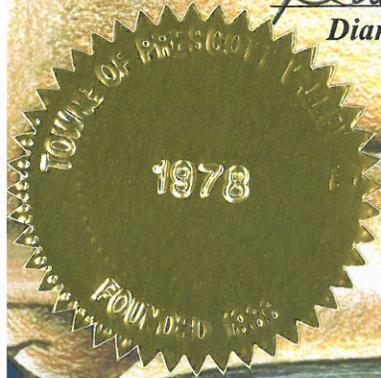

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Town of Prescott Valley to be affixed this 13th day of March, 2014.

Attest:
