

Proclamation

Mayors Day of Recognition for National Service April 7, 2015

WHEREAS, service to others is a hallmark of the American character, and central to how we meet our challenges. The nation's mayors are increasingly turning to national service and volunteerism as a cost-effective strategy to meet city needs; and

WHEREAS, participants in AmeriCorps and Senior Corps address the most pressing challenges facing our cities and nation, from educating students for the jobs of the 21st century and supporting veterans and military families to providing health services and helping communities recover from natural disasters; and

WHEREAS, national service expands economic opportunity by creating more sustainable, resilient communities and providing education, career skills, and leadership abilities for those who serve; and

WHEREAS, AmeriCorps and Senior Corps participants serve in more than 60,000 locations across the country, bolstering the civic, neighborhood, and faith-based organizations that are so vital to our communities economic and social well-being; and

WHEREAS, national service participants of all ages and backgrounds serve in Prescott Valley, providing vital support to town residents and improving the quality of life in our town; and

WHEREAS, national service represents a unique public-private partnership that invests in community solutions and leverages non-federal resources to strengthen community impact and increase the return on taxpayer dollars; and

WHEREAS, national service participants demonstrate commitment, dedication, and patriotism by making an intensive commitment to service, a commitment that remains with them in their future endeavors; and

WHEREAS, the Corporation for National and Community Service shares a priority with mayors nationwide to engage citizens, improve lives, and strengthen communities; and is joining with the National League of Cities, City of Service, and mayors across the country to recognize the impact of service on the Mayor's Day of Recognition for National Service on April 7, 2015.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Harvey C. Skoog, Mayor of Prescott Valley, do hereby proclaim April 7, 2015 as:

"National Service Recognition Day" and encourage residents to recognize the positive impact of national service in our town and thank those who serve; and to find ways to give back to their communities.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Town of Prescott Valley to be affixed this 26th day of March, 2015.

Attest:

Diane Russell, Town Clerk

Mayor:

Harvey C. Skoog, Mayor

1978

Town of Prescott Valley
