SUMMARY/BACKGROUND: The Arizona Automobile Theft Authority (AATA) enhances public awareness by awarding grants through its Public Awareness Grant Program. A vital component in the AATA’s mission is public awareness and community education. The AATA increases public awareness by educating Arizona citizens about vehicle theft prevention through use of media campaigns and community events throughout the State. For several years, the Prescott Valley Police Department has partnered with the AATA in achieving their mission.

The Prescott Valley Police Department applied for FY15/16 AATA grant funding in order to continue our successful endeavors in their campaign for public awareness. On June 1, 2015, the Prescott Valley Police Department received notice of an approved grant award from AATA for $1,391.25. Funding will be utilized to host community VIN Etching events in Prescott Valley and will provide for necessary equipment and supplies.

If accepted, this grant agreement will commence on July 1, 2015 and will terminate on June 30, 2016.____
