 Comments:

C. How did you learn about this Commission?
Prescott Valley Tribune

D. What prompted you to apply for this Commission?
I enjoy arts and culture. I moved to the Prescott Valley area after visiting the town and region on numerous occasions. The area has many assets, and I enjoy participating in and with them. I feel that I have assets and the passion to share them.

E. How do you view the future of arts and culture activities in Prescott Valley?

Young people have told me that there is nothing here for them, and the community caters to older people. I would like to expand on arts and cultures that touch everyone.

F. Please describe any education, training, skills, or experience you have that apply to your service on this Commission:

I was an economic and community development manager with the State of Indiana, Economic Development director for the city of Crawfordsville, (IN) and Montgomery County, Redevelopment Commissioner, served on the boards for the Lew Wallace Museum (Arizona Territory Governor and Ben Hur Author), and was a board member for a Big Brother Big Sister organization.

G. Do you have a specific role you want to embrace on the Commission?

I would like to begin as a commissioner, and explore various art and cultural avenues. There seems to be a variety of opportunities that can be incorporated with the parks. Tie the parks with festivals, Earth Day, art fairs, fishing events, etc.

H. Please list any additional information about your knowledge, skills or abilities that would assist the Town Council in selection of members:

I'm familiar with grants, economic and community development alliances, tourism, hiking, fishing, canoeing, and the outdoors in general. While I can only draw stick figures, my brother is an artist. Additionally, while I may not be the most literate person, I have authored two national magazines.
