WHAT'S ON THE BALLOT??

Jail Tax, Propositions and YC Governing Board Candidates

How many times have you looked at the ballot, and realized you didn't understand all of the propositions on it? It can get so confusing! Come to our next Prescott Valley Chamber of Commerce Quarterly Breakfast on Tuesday, October 7th, 7am to 8:30am at the Stoneridge Grill, for "WHAT'S ON THE BALLOT? General Election Info Pro & Con". FYI...we moved this breakfast up earlier in the month, so you will get a chance to learn about the Ballot Measures before early voting begins October 9th...and way before election day on November 4th.

We'll have an overview of the ballot propositions presented. You'll learn both sides of the proposed Jail District Sales Tax Increase, with PRO presentation by Jack Fields, Asst. Yavapai County Administrator, and CON Presentation by David Stringer, Chairman of the Yavapai County Tax Committee. And you'll hear from the Candidates running for the Yavapai College Governing Board. Should be another lively and educational breakfast! Presenters and candidates will be encouraged to stay after the breakfast to answer voter questions one-on-one. After all, this could be the last time you get to meet some of the candidates before Election Day!

The Quarterly Breakfast is brought to you by the Prescott Valley Chamber of Commerce and coordinated by Marnie Uhl and Allison Flannery. Many thanks to our October Quarterly Breakfast Sponsors, Advocare Distributors, Greg and Donna Sturgis.

All Candidates are welcome to bring campaign materials, but must put fliers and info on a display table designated by the Chamber. We will allow info on the propositions, pro and con, to be placed on dining tables, so our members can review topics that are being discussed.
